ENTERPRISE RANGERS QUOTES

ENTERPRISE RANGERS © 2026

ISBN:978-078-68-6932-2

1. “Enterprise rangers make wealth from problems. They use their education to evolve in the knowledge economy.”
2. “You are in the financial red zone without financial capacity, capability, independence and sovereignty.”
3. “Your mind is an economic space. You are a sovereign knowledge force.”
4. “The real world is competitive and confrontational. The real world is predatory and aggressive. In the real world, knowledge is security for any education one has attained.”
5. “Go for enterprise-inducing knowledge even after passing all your exams. Make a name for your discipline and specialization by making name for yourself.”
6. “The life cycle of knowledge comprises the dated, outdated, redated, and updated knowledge.”
7. “Enterprise rangers use knowledge professionalism to make war on economic chaos through enterprise creation which maybe taken for problem creation or problem-solving.”
8. “Only the strategic knowledge turns education into an economic force. That sums as playing with the unknown.”
9. “Enterprise rangers are creativity and productivity inclined thinkers.”
10. “Enterprise rangers as knowledge warriors march into knowledge competition without illusions.”
11. “Enterprise rangers don’t win simply with normality. They overextend their capability.”
12. “Problems spark electrical energy in the thinking mind stirring idleness into thought strings for ideas. This is secret knowing that makes enterprise rangers into knowledge creators and solution innovators”

13. "Enterprise rangers argue that for anyone with acquired education to be relevant in the problem economy, he has to breach the restrictions to thinking constructed within their disciplines and specializations"
14. "The stuff of enterprise rangers it staying ahead of the known."
15. "As in the war ecosystem, the enterprise ranger much like the warrior ranger is more attuned to strategy above and beyond management."
16. "No matter what you read, outlive the predation in the knowledge ecosystem."
17. "Without tapping into the unknown, you may not know how much difference you can make to the knowledge and enterprise ecosystems."
18. "The unknowing will not know the unknown that is unknown to him."
19. "Without problems, the unknown may not be explored. Problems are as virus."
20. "Every old and new knowledge came from the unknown."
21. "The known knowledge constitutes education. Beyond this is so much to know, so much to discover, so much insight to reflect on, so much to learn about and yet so much lying unpolished into knowledge that should be discovered."
22. "Waltz to the rhythms of knowledge. Sing the melody of your acquired education. Show your knowledge dance moves. You are not just an enterprise ranger you are a knowledge warrior."
23. "You should not miss this fact if you want to lead as the top enterprise predator in the enterprise ecosystem. Knowledge is the currency of change."
24. "In the knowledge and enterprise ecosystems, without awakening you cannot align with the fare of business of the time. Without alignment you cannot accomplish as much."
